

SP2 SPEAKER SERIES 2021–2022

Conversations about race, equity, and justice with experts on social policy and social work.

A SCALABLE APPROACH TO ECONOMIC INCLUSION

TUESDAY, APRIL 12, 2022 | 12:00 – 1:00PM

PANELISTS:

LISA NUTTER

Managing Partner, Community Impact Investments

MICHAEL NUTTER

Managing Director, SP2 Center for Public Service and Policy
Senior Executive Fellow, SP2, Penn Institute for Urban Research
Former Mayor of Philadelphia

BEN JEALOUS | HOST

Professor of Practice, Annenberg School for Communication,
Penn Law School, and School of Social Policy & Practice, University of Pennsylvania
President, People for the American Way

 VIRTUAL EVENT

REGISTER

Discussion topics will include:

- An Introduction to the Partnership for Social and Economic Mobility
- The influence of academic partnerships with three distinct academic institutions – Columbia University, Johnson C. Smith University, and the University of Pennsylvania
- How research findings that surface will drive the approaches to scale this initiative

Each 60-minute session will include an introduction, discussion, Q&A, and closing remarks from Ben Jealous.